

RE+ COMMUNITY ENERGY'S INAUGURAL EVENT

RE+ Community Energy debuted its first standalone event in San Diego, California, this January and brought together leading community energy businesses, utilities, non-profits, and policy makers.

BY THE NUMBERS

350
ATTENDEES

23
EXHIBITORS

70%
BUYING POWER

TOP INDUSTRY SEGMENTS

GEOGRAPHIC BREAKDOWN

JOB LEVELS

TOP JOB TITLES

POWERED BY

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

- » Fostering Equitable Community Energy: Federal Programs, Initiatives, and Incentives
- » The Future of Community Solar
- » Fireside Chat: The Impact of Interconnection on Community Based Clean Energy Development
- » How We Built It: Unpacking a Successful Community Solar Market
- » Community Solar: Balancing the Costs and Benefits

TECHNOLOGIES OF INTEREST

Community Solar	68%
Energy Storage	59%
Community Energy	46%
Distributed PV	40%
Photovoltaics	33%
Microgrid Solutions	28%
EVs & Infrastructure	28%
Finance	26%

INDUSTRY & COMMUNITY PARTNERS

MEDIA PARTNERS

EXHIBITORS

- » Alliance for Tribal Clean Energy
- » Civil & Environmental Consultants, Inc
- » Coalition for Community Solar Access
- » Cooley Commercial
- » Federal Pacific
- » Gautam Solar Private Limited
- » Jinagsu Runergy New Energy Technology Co. Ltd
- » JinkoSolar (U.S.) Inc.
- » Kevala, Inc.
- » Nanjing C&D Clean Energy Co., Ltd
- » National Renewable Energy Laboratory
- » Paces
- » PowerHub
- » Savant
- » Solar4America Technology Inc.
- » SolarEdge Technologies
- » Solis Inverters
- » Sustain it Global
- » SWCA Environmental Consultants
- » WTEC Energy

POWERED BY

